RE: Williams v. Transunion, et al.

Dear Mr. Margolis:

First, I want to confirm that you granted my secretary, Carol, a one day extension to July 17, 2008, to serve responses to plaintiff's discovery. Those responses are being served along with this letter.

Second, I wrote to you on June 30, 2008, regarding your client's responses to my discovery. I provided you with my correspondence to him regarding the adequacy of those responses and his response to my letter. To date, I have received no communications from you regarding plaintiff's discovery responses. I want to make it clear that I want and need full and complete responses to my discovery. Unless I hear from you by July 25, 2008, regarding the responses, I will assume that you are in agreement with your client regarding the adequacy of the responses and that no further responses will be provided. If so, please be advised that I will take the appropriate action to obtain a court order to obtain full and complete responses.

Thank you for your attention to this matter.

Very truly yours,
